Funtastics in July: Archaeological Dig A very exciting project at Old Salem, the Summer Archaeology Program, will be completed shortly. The Funtastics July event will be to visit the site of the excavation, a potter’s kiln, and watch work in progress; talk to volunteers and examine shards and relics that have been recovered. Dr. Michael Hartley will be our host. After the site visit, our program continues at lunch in Home Church where Dr. Hartley is joined by his wife, Martha to talk more about the program and answer questions. A box lunch from Salem Kitchen will be provided. So, mark your calendar for July 11; we will leave the church at 10 a.m. - register by July 7! Contact Bob Rustad (336-765-4109) if you have questions.

Rome: Paul and the Underground Church Vacation Bible School is offered each year during the summer months to reach out to the children in our congregation, preschool, and neighborhood. Well, don’t recycle them just yet – bring them to the church for use at Vacation Bible School. We’re looking for cardboard boxes of any size! Just bring them to the church and leave them behind the stage in the fellowship hall. Laura Long (336-413-4001) and the VBS Crew thank you for helping!

Nursery for Worship Offered during both services of Worship in Room 210 for infants through children 2 years. Room 211 is available as a quiet room for infants.

Summer Sunday School Our Children and Youth Sunday school classes will join this summer for learning, fellowship, and service. Beginning Sunday, June 4 all school-age classes will meet in the fellowship hall. The focus for each month: June – Missions Around the World; July – Serving Our Community; August – A Combination of Mission, Service and Celebration.

Come As You Are! June through the month of August – remember to “Come As You Are” to worship. In the heat of summer, you are invited to trade in your “church clothes” for more comfortable, cooler, and casual clothing.

Laurel Ridge Summer Camp A reminder about camp scholarships: New Philadelphia offers ONE ½ tuitions scholarship per camper/per Summer to participate in a session of camp. When you register you must use the code “np2017” for the New Philadelphia scholarship - this is for NPMC Members only.

A Message for Sunday School Leaders: Plans are underway for new artwork to be placed on the walls between the Commons Area and Fellowship Hall. We would like to place panels of scripture along this passageway and are asking for your help. Would you lead your class in deciding upon a scripture passage that reflects the focus of your group and that proclaims a foundational truth about our faith and denomination? We would like to have a submission from each adult Sunday School class and will also include our Middle and Senior youth as well as our New Philly Kids. The deadline is Sunday, July 16. Additional information can be found in your classroom.

“Being Mortal” Presentation at Rural Hall Moravian On Wednesday, June 28, 7:00 pm, Rural Hall Moravian Church in collaboration with The Shepherd’s Center of Greater Winston-Salem and the Moravian Board of Cooperative Ministries, will present a free screening and discussion of the PBS Frontline film, Being Mortal, based on the best-selling book by Atul Gawande, MD. The documentary explores the hopes of patients and families facing terminal illness and their relationships with the physicians who treat them. After the film, a panel of local experts will share their thoughts and answer questions. Panelists are Dr. Davey Stallings, Rev. Lori Carter, and Attorney Ben Limehouse. The “Being Mortal Project” sponsored by the Hospice Foundation of America ends this month, so this may be the last opportunity for a public showing of this groundbreaking and thought-provoking film. For additional information, call Rural Hall Moravian Church at 336-969-9488.

Looking ahead to Funtastics in August Mark Thursday, August 10 down on your calendar. The Funtastics plan to visit the Carolina Field of Honor at Triad Park in Kernersville. The Field of Honor is an impressive and inspirational memorial dedicated to military veterans and their families. After the visit, the group will spend the rest of the morning at the Greensboro Farmers Market; lunch will be at the Moose Café. Plans are to leave the church on August 10 at 9:30 a.m. You may RSVP to the church office by August 7. Contact Bob Rustad (336-765-4109) if you have questions.

News of the Church

Prelude

The Liturgy (standing)

Come, now is the time to worship
Come, now is the time to give your heart
Come, just as you are to worship
Come, just as you are before your God
Come

One day every tongue will confess
You are God
One day every knee will bow
Still the greatest treasure remains for those
Who gladly choose You now

Call to mind the mighty acts of God. Remember the wonders God has revealed in your life.

All the ways of God are holy. Nothing in heaven or earth is so great as God.

With a strong arm, God redeems the people. Day by day God leads us with the shepherd’s care.

Even when the earth trembles, God is with us. When lightning flashes, we are confident of God's love.

We have inherited the mission of the prophets. We need the prophet’s mantle from our God.

We have come to be equipped for our tasks. We have gathered for the renewal of our lives.

We cry aloud to you, O God.

Hear our prayers.

In times of trouble,

We need your comfort.

Amid our confusion,

We seek your clarity.

From temptations of the flesh,

We seek a holy distraction.

Lead us away from the false Gods we create,

Let us meet you here with full expectancy and eager responsiveness.

*Lord, prepare me to be a sanctuary,
Pure and holy, tried and true,
With thanksgiving, I'll be a living sanctuary,
For you.*

CCLI #2830492

(kneeling)

When our selfish ways enslave us, when our arrogant pretension deceives us, when our anxiety hobbles us, God calls us to repent; laying aside our excuses, seeking pardon from its only source – the love of God, revealed in Jesus Christ.

O God, we have been so self-centered that we find it difficult to center ourselves in you. We preoccupy ourselves with things of small consequence that we often forget the larger matters of the heart and soul. We bite and devour others, yet you call us to build relationships and delight in our love. From the sin that binds us, set us free.

(standing)

Christ has indeed set you free. So, stand firm and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery to sin.

Amen.

Hymn

You Are My Wholeness

(Chorus)

*You, you are my wholeness,
you are my completeness.
My soul, my thirsty soul, can drink from the depths of your love.*

*In you I find forgiveness
yes, in you I find release.
It's a wonder you take all the blunders I make and so graciously offer me peace. (Chorus)*

*In you I find true friendship.
You, your love is so free of demands.
Though I must hurt you so,
you keep letting me go
to discover the person I am. (Chorus)*

*Like a parent you long to protect me.
Yet you know I must learn on my own.
Well I've made my own choice
to follow your voice
guiding me back to my home. (Chorus)*
