Silent Auction There have been several inquiries about the new star rug in the Friendship Room, which was purchased from Carpet One by Henry in Winston-Salem. We are thrilled with the excitement around the rug and excited to offer an 8'6" x 29'6" remnant piece that will be available for members to bid on in a Silent Auction. Bids will be accepted beginning this Sunday through February 25. The starting bid has been set at $1500, which is a reduced square footage price from what one would pay if placing a new order at the shop. Carpet One by Henry is happy to assist with cutting and binding the remnant for an additional fee, which will be the responsibility of the winning bidder. Please make your bid in person on the sheets provided in the Friendship Room.

He, She, We and God (These Are Our Bodies) is a program in faith and sexuality designed for 5th and 6th graders and their parents, offered over a Friday afternoon into the evening and Saturday mid-morning to late afternoon. The focus of the event is based on universal needs of tweens (older elementary kids) and their parents. Parents are an integral and essential part of the program. The goals include laying a faith foundation for understanding sexuality, empowering and equipping parents to be the primary sexuality educators of their children and experiencing the church as a place to explore important milestones and to grow spiritually.

“Dear New Philadelphia, In what can be described as divine intervention, we have people like you in our life. Without even having to ask, you stepped in to help a young family. It speaks not only of your kind heart but of your patriotism. My husband is proud to go to work every day and represent our country in the United States Coast Guard. It has been our lives for the past eleven years and we thank God for allowing us to see his beautiful country. We can never thank you enough for your kindness and generosity. We truly appreciate it. Gracious God, open our hearts to your power moving around us and among us and within us,

Holy God, you have called us to follow in the way of your risen Son,

(Kneeling)

We confess, Lord, that as your disciples we have often dishonored the holy name we bear. We ask your forgiveness for the times when we have failed to labor for your kingdom; when we have not followed your admonition to seek first the kingdom of God; when we have hidden our light from the world; when we, as the salt of the earth, have lost our strength. Have mercy on us and restore unto us the joy of faithful discipleship.

Silent Confession

The Lord says: I, even I, am the God who blots out your transgressions for my own sake and will not remember your sins. Go and sin no more.

By our Lord's birth we are reborn,

In his suffering we are freed from sin.

By his rising from the dead,

We rise to everlasting life.

Holy and gracious God, our Creator,

Give us strength and joy in serving you as followers of Christ,
